GL-TeNOR: Global Law – Text & Normativity in a Global Context

26 January – 7 February 2014

University of Lucerne

GL-TeNOR is a two-week Erasmus Intensive Programme providing new and innovative approaches to the interdisciplinary study of global law. The course is organised under the aegis of the European Academy of Legal Theory and jointly offered by the following partner universities:

University of Lucerne (coordinating institution)

University of Frankfurt/Main

University of Vienna

Université Libre de Bruxelles – ULB

University of Stockholm

Jagiellonian University Cracow

Free University of Berlin

Université Paris I, Pantheon-Sorbonne

University of Antwerp

Università degli studi di Palermo

2013/14 Theme:

Constitutionalisation of Global Private Law Regimes

Participation:

Participation is open to law, social sciences and humanities students (Masters and Doctoral level) enrolled at one of the partner universities. Applications are to be made directly to the GL-TeNOR contact person at the home institution. All partner universities apply a common selection policy, taking account of academic excellence, international experience, gender equality and equality of people with disabilities.

Fees & Grants:

Successful applicants will be awarded a grant covering tuition fees and travel costs, and a daily housing subsistence lump sum. In exchange, students are expected to attend all sessions during the programme, and to actively contribute to course exercises and discussions.

ECTS:

Participation in GL-TeNOR is part of the official course programme of the partner universities involved. Participating students are entitled to receive academic recognition in case of successful completion of all course requirements: GL-TeNOR comprises 9 ECTS credits.
