

European Award for Legal Theory

The European Award for Legal Theory is assigned to the author of an exceptionally good doctoral thesis in the area of legal theory and philosophy of law.

The award entails publication of the thesis by Hart Publishing. It is also planned that the prize winner will do some lecturing, most probably within the frame of the master course in legal theory, founded in 1992 and currently organised at J.W.Goethe University Frankfurt in collaboration with other universities in Europe (www.legaltheory.eu).

As from 2021 the award will be assigned on a permanent basis among the theses submitted for publication with Hart Publishing, Oxford.

Theses which meet high international standards will be published, as a rule in the European Academy of Legal Theory Series. Doctoral theses which are considered to be exceptionally good by a representative international jury will receive the European Award for Legal Theory.

Authors may send in their theses at any time to:

European Award for Legal Theory,
Professor Mark Van Hoecke,
Department of Jurisprudence, Ghent law school,
Universiteitsstraat 4, B-9000 Ghent, Belgium
e-mail: Mark.VanHoecke@UGent.be

A doctoral thesis competing for this award should meet the following conditions:

- The version submitted should be written or translated into English
- An English summary of 5,000 to 10,000 words should be added
- The thesis will not be contracted by an internationally operating commercial publishing house before a decision has been taken about its publication within the context of this award.

PUBLISHING

The award is assigned by a representative international jury appointed in cooperation between The European Academy of Legal Theory and Hart Publishing.

If the (revised) thesis is written in publishable English, the publisher will pay royalties on the net sales receipt to the author. If language correction is necessary the publisher will pay for this up to a maximum of £1500. In this case no royalties will be paid.
