

Global Legal Research and Information Management: Legal Scholars and New Technologies

Stockholm University, 16 February - 28 February 2014

GRiM aims to provide skills necessary in legal education and professional legal training of increasing importance:

- legal information management skills
- legal research management skills
- ICT skills

GRiM is sponsored by the EALT partner universities, Stockholm and FU Berlin.

Grants covering tuition and certain travel and lodging costs are available to eligible participants enrolled in one of the partner universities (including in-coming exchange students). Applicants should be in their 4th year of legal studies or higher (master or PhD students). GRiM explicitly welcomes applications from students with disabilities.

Application Deadline: November 21, 2013
Application Details: www.legaltheory.eu (GRiM)

Disclaimer: This teaching module is funded with support from the European Commission (Lifelong Learning Programme, Erasmus Intensive Programmes). This website reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

